Learning Spaces For Minds To Thrive

Your Project, Our Support

Together We Bring Learning to Life

Whether you're designing a nurturing early learning environment, a flexible tertiary campus, or a workplace training hub, every detail contributes to how people engage, focus, and grow. Design, comfort, and functionality all influence how learning happens and how communities connect.

At P4, we partner with you to turn ideas into inspiring spaces — combining trusted brands, thoughtful design, and tailored solutions to ensure your environment performs exactly as required.

Where Learning Comes to Life

Education Spaces Are More Than a Place to Learn — They're a Place For Growth.

From classrooms and libraries to breakout zones and lecture theatres, today's learning spaces are as dynamic as the people who use them.

We help you create environments that support every stage of the learning journey — inspiring, inclusive, and built to last. With exclusive access to global brands, local stock support, and customisation capabilities, P4 enables you to create spaces that encourage focus, collaboration, and wellbeing — every day of the week.

Why It Works

Not unlike the foundations of a building, P4 is built upon four brand pillars:

1. Curated Portfolio

We elevate spaces with a thoughtfully curated selection of human-centred products from leading local and international brands.

2. Expert Advice

With over 25 years of experience, we share expertise through meaningful dialogue and collaborative partnerships.

3. Superior Support

We deliver responsive local solutions and in-house manufacturing for bespoke pieces tailored to your space.

4. Quality Products

We partner with brands and makers who share our commitment to quality, sustainability, and purposeful design.

Design That Drives Discovery

Spaces That Inspire Focus, Creativity, and Connection

With our carefully curated portfolio, you have the freedom to design learning environments that balance aesthetics, purpose, and performance.

Whether it's a collaborative classroom, an active study hub, or a university library, our furniture solutions adapt to evolving education needs, learning requirements, and teaching styles.

By combining enduring quality with considered design, we help you create spaces that go beyond function — futureproof environments that engage, inspire, and endure.

Acoustic Solutions

Where Sound Meets Focus

In learning spaces, great design is also what you hear. Acoustic comfort enhances communication, concentration, and inclusivity — allowing every voice to be heard.

We partner with leading acoustic brands to deliver panels and textiles that refine the atmosphere of learning spaces.

From sound-absorbing wall panels to advanced performance textiles, our solutions enhance how your space looks, feels, and performs — creating calm, balanced environments that support learning at every level.

Technology

Power and Connectivity for Active Learning

In contemporary learning spaces, access to power is as essential as a comfortable chair. OE Elsafe's QIKPAC battery and Animate ecosystem free classrooms from fixed floor boxes and wall outlets, delivering safe, mobile power exactly where it's needed.

Integrated into tables, soft seating, and study hubs, these solutions support laptops, devices, displays, and collaborative tools without visual clutter. Flexible, upgradeable, and easy to reconfigure, they help you future-proof your spaces as teaching modes and technology continue to evolve.

Customisation & Local Supply

Bringing Your Vision to Life

Every education space is unique — and so are its requirements.

With our local manufacturing capabilities, specific design modifications and customisation is possible across many products in our range. We deliver bespoke solutions quickly and confidently, ensuring every piece meets both aesthetic, ergonomic and functional needs.

We customise finishes, colours, and upholstery detail to suit your project, whether that means aligning with institutional branding, or selecting sustainable or compliant materials.

Industry Trust

We Work With Those Shaping the Future of Learning

Australia's leading architects, designers, and educational institutions trust P4 to help create spaces where learning thrives.

From government and private schools to universities and workplace training, our products support environments that encourage curiosity, collaboration, and comfort.

When you partner with us, you join a community of professionals dedicated to shaping spaces that empower people to learn, think, and grow.

P4.

Your Vision, Realised

Every Great Learning Space Starts With a Vision

P4 is your partner in bringing it to life—with the product range, expertise, and support to see your project through.

Our experienced team works with you at every stage, from tailored selections and custom finishes to delivery, installation, and ongoing care.

Together, we create spaces that inspire connection, curiosity, and growth.
